All applicants must read and complete this section.

Consent to disclosure (for a NZ Police Vet Check)

1. The information about me that NZ Police may consider relevant to my application and release in vetting comprises any conviction history and, for certain agencies, infringement/demerit reports; and it may include other information such as active charges and warrants to arrest, any information received or obtained by NZ Police, and any interaction I have had with NZ Police in any context (including family violence), even where I have not been charged, or charges are withdrawn, or I have been acquitted (not guilty) of a charge, or I have been discharged without conviction.
2. Any conviction history will be released in accordance with the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004; this means that, if I am 'eligible' for clean slate (e.g. no convictions for 7 years, never been to prison, no convictions for specified sexual offending, etc – see section 7 of the Act):
 - a. my criminal record of convictions will not be disclosed; but
 - b. if the role for which I have applied is an exception to the clean slate scheme (e.g. predominantly involving care and protection of a child or young person), my criminal record of convictions will be disclosed.
3. When releasing information to non-government Approved Agencies, Police may release the fact, without details, that suppressed information exists in relation to any conviction and, where NZ Police considers it relevant and justified, in relation to any current or past charge however it was resolved (e.g. withdrawn, discharged, acquitted).
4. Where NZ Police holds relevant information that it is unwilling to disclose to the Approved Agency for privacy, confidentiality or law enforcement reasons, NZ Police may recommend against unsupervised access to children or vulnerable persons (this is known as a 'red stamp').
5. The personal information I provide in this form is being collected for vetting purposes, and may also be used for the purpose of updating NZ Police records.
6. I may withdraw this consent, prior to Police's disclosure of the vetting result, by notifying the Approved Agency who will immediately notify NZ Police to cease the vetting process.
7. I am entitled to access the vetting result released to the Approved Agency and seek correction of Police information about me in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993, by making a request to the 'Approved Agency' within 20 working days of submitting this 'Request and Consent' form.
8. The Approved Agency will not make the completed form (including identification documents) or the results a permanent part of its records, but will:
 - a) retain the documentation not longer than twelve months following receipt of the result, unless a longer retention period is required under legislation; and
 - b) securely dispose of the documentation in accordance with clause 44 or any legislative requirement.
9. The information I have provided in this form relates to me and is correct.

4. Declaration (continued)

By ticking this box, you (the above named person) declare that to the best of your knowledge and belief the statements made and the information supplied in this form and the attachments are true, complete and correct.

Caution: Providing false information or failing to disclose information relevant to the granting or holding of a maritime document is an offence under section 406 of the Maritime Transport Act. New Zealand Police

I authorise NZ Police to disclose any personal information it considers relevant to my application (as described above) to the Approved Agency making this request for the purpose of assessing my suitability.
